

PEER FEEDBACK FORM

1. What did you find interesting about this article? Did you learn anything you didn't know before?

2. What would you say was the key finding of the original research paper?

3. Is there anything you think the author could add to the article?
Did it raise any questions for you? Were there things you didn't quite understand?

4. Do you think the style and content are appropriate for a quality newspaper? Why? – give examples

5. Is there anything you particularly like about the way the article is written? Does it give you ideas about things you could improve in your own work?