- Please use a word processor whenever this is possible.
- Type (or write) on one side of the paper only.
- Number pages and leave wide margins for comments by the marker.
- Where appropriate, use numbered section headings.
- Examples should be numbered throughout.
- Pay attention to style and punctuation. The markers do.
- Always include a references section, in which you give full details of all the references in your work. If you fail to do so, you may be committing an examination offence. See our departmental policy on plagiarism.
- If you do not know how to refer to other people's work, then use the references of an academic book or journal as a template or have a look at the examples in our departmental policy on plagiarism.
